About NICM

Natesan Institute of Cooperative Management (NICM), Chennai is one among the 19 premier Institutes established by the National Council for Cooperative Training (NCCT), New Delhi, which is an Autonomous body functioning under the Ministry of Cooperation, Government of India. The mandate of NCCT is to organize training programmes for the personnel working in cooperative sectors with an objective to upgrade their knowledge and skills for achieving excellence in cooperative management and administration.

NICM, Chennai is recognised as a cooperative human resource development institution, that supports cooperative organizations, Government departments, and individuals to meet their learning needs. It serves as a resource centre for professionalisation of cooperative movement and community enrichment.

Training Programmes

Training is the most important activity in this institute. It caters to the training needs of the personnel of Cooperative Institutions and Cooperative Department and allied sectors such as Fisheries, Animal Husbandry, Industry, textile, etc. In addition, it undertakes several capacity building training programmes for the Board of Directors as well as the members of primary cooperative Societies (Farmers/ Weavers/ Fishermen/ Artisans).

The Training programmes are designed and organized on various functional management areas with varying duration keeping in view of the requirements of the target group aiming to strengthen the societies in general and the farmer members in particular.

The activities of the institute mainly concentrate on the Human Resource Development through capacity development of the stakeholders in cooperatives by imparting effective training for innovation, skill development and catering awareness about the various schemes introduced by the Government to reach its benefits to the farmers and other Agriculture related members to augment their income.

Every year this institute conducts 80-100 training Programmes including Long term and Short term programmes, targeting the farmers/cooperative personnel/Government officials. Besides the core programme, Higher Diploma in Cooperative Management (HDCM), NICM offers various sectoral Diploma programmes viz., Diploma in Industrial Cooperative Management (DICM), Diploma in Dairy Cooperatives (DMDC) and Diploma in Handloom Cooperative Management (DHCM).

Higher Diploma in Cooperative Management

HDCM is the core programme of the institute which aims to disseminate and inculcate the aspirants of the cooperative sector on the various facets of management in cooperative enterprises. It contains a rich and updated curriculum on cooperative management. Obtaining this diploma is a prerequisite for appointment in cooperatives in Tamilnadu and it enables the candidates for seeking jobs in cooperatives all over the country. Keeping in view of the prevailing changes and challenges in the contemporary business environment, the National Council for Cooperative Training, New Delhi has redesigned the Higher Diploma in Cooperative Management (HDCM) course with a view to sharpen the analytical and decision-making competencies of the managers and potential managers of the cooperative sector.

The duration of HDCM course is 36 Weeks (Regular and Distance Learning). The training methodology of the programme includes Class Room Lecture, Case analysis, Role play, Group Assignments, Debates, Paper presentations in seminars, Group Discussions, Project Preparation, and Study Visit. This programme is recognized by Govt. of India and Govt. of other states for Employment in Cooperative organizations and Cooperative Department.

Master of Business Administration (MBA)

NICM, Chennai caters to the cooperative sector's Management Development and training requirements. NICM started MBA in 2008 affiliated with Madras University and approved by AICTE, New Delhi. 14 batches of MBA have passed out, so far. This course has got an excellent response from the students' community. The Alumni of the Institute are placed in many leading Domestic and Multinational organisations.

The Institute has an active students placement programme. Through its placement cell, it provides direction and support to students who are eligible for placements.

Eligibility for Admission

Candidates shall be required to have passed a Bachelor's Degree of the University of Madras or of any other University or a qualification accepted by the Syndicate of this University as equivalent thereto, shall be eligible for admission to MBA Degree Course.
